Staff Profile

Steven Seiller

Steven Seiller helps schools and group homes deal with their worst behavioral and aggression problems. As an administrator with the Service Alternatives Training Institute, he provides consultation, risk management and specialized training to empower organizations to maintain safety while increasing educational and therapeutic outcomes.

Steve is a former Special Education Teacher and Community Case Manager and has for the last 20 years specialized in working with children and adults with severe emotional and behavioral disorders. He is also active in the areas of curriculum development, risk management, school security and has helped develop safety intervention legislation.

He has been employed by Service Alternatives, Inc. since 1995 as a Program Manager, Training Specialist and Administrator. Since 1999, Steven has supported clients outside of Service Alternatives with their individual training needs.

A native of Chicago, Mr. Seiller has held teaching certificates in Alaska and Washington and has a B.S. in Cultural Anthropology from the University of Oregon. Seiller has completed the Washington State School Security Officer Academy and is currently studying to complete a certificate as an Associate in Risk Management. Steve provides testimony regarding best practices in the implementation of policy and procedure for the use of crisis management procedures in the educational environment.

Steve is also a professional photographer, graphic designer and web developer. He manages the data collection and analysis systems used by RIGHT RESPONSE. Mr. Seiller also produces the electronic and printed learning materials used by the Service Alternatives Training Institute.
